BANKWEST Supports Nourishing HOPE During Minnesota Bankers Community Impact Month

September was Minnesota Bankers Community Impact Month and BANKWEST was excited to support Nourishing HOPE.

BANKWEST joined a multi-community project called Nourishing HOPE. In addition to our monetary donation, we met at Our Father's Lutheran Church in Rockford and together we packed and distributed boxes of fresh produce and dairy. Our volunteers helped to fill 560 boxes with 26,500 pounds of food for distribution to the five Nourishing HOPE sites. Over the five sites, 1,400 people received food.

"We are proud to volunteer with Nourishing HOPE," said Steve Huston, BANKWEST CEO/President. "Our bank truly believes that the strength of our communities is our strength and we share this belief with fellow bankers in Minnesota. That's why we are so excited to join with bankers across the state during this month volunteering our time to great causes."

Nourishing HOPE operates at churches in Rockford, Hanover, Delano, Corcoran, and Buffalo. They pack up boxes of food (mainly produce and dairy) from Second Harvest and other organizations, and hand them out to the people in those communities for free on the second Monday of each month.

BANKWEST is a state-chartered, family-owned community bank dedicated to providing financial services to meet the needs of its customers. BANKWEST has been owned by the Huston family for over 40 years. The main office is located in Rockford, with additional branches in Buffalo and Hanover.

Community Impact Month was launched by the Minnesota Bankers Association in 2016. During the month, participating MBA member banks engage employees in volunteer service activities, highlighting the vital role that banks play in their communities. While BANKWEST devotes many hours to community-enriching projects throughout the year, the volunteer projects undertaken by dozens of banks collectively during Minnesota Bankers Community Impact Month enhance and reflect this year-round support of local communities in Minnesota.
